Saratoga Springs Martin Luther King Day Celebration

The community task force coordinating the 2008 MLK Day Celebration is pleased to announce that this event will take place on Monday, January 21 at the Saratoga Springs Public Library. There will be childrens' activities in the Susman room starting at 1 p.m.

"Realizing the Dream" is the theme of this year's celebration, with a welcome by Mayor Scott Johnson, a photo montage, songs and music with audience participation, student essays and a community circle honoring Dr. King's legacy, particularly his inspirational words about peace and racial justice. Free refreshments will be provided by the Circus Café, Bread Basket, Price Chopper and Slice of Heaven bakery.

Sponsoring groups include: NAACP, Temple Sinai, Saratoga Peace Alliance, League of Women Voters, Saratoga Mentoring of Catholic Charities, and Skidmore College.

At 7 p.m. Rev. Claudia Highbaugh will deliver a keynote lecture: "Reflections on the Movement" in Gannett Auditorium, Skidmore College.
