RE: WAR MADE EASY: HOW PRESIDENTS AND PUNDITS KEEP SPINNING US INTO WAR SCREENING

In observance of the fifth anniversary of the invasion of Iraq, a coalition of Montclair-based groups is sponsoring this informative film.

MOVIE: WAR MADE EASY: HOW PRESIDENTS AND PUNDITS KEEP SPINNING US INTO WAR

WHEN: Mon. March 10, 2008 at 7:00 pm

WHERE: Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, 67 Church Street, Montclair

War Made Easy brings to the screen Norman Solomon's insightful analysis of how governments bent on war-making have relied on a vast arsenal of propaganda techniques to overcome resistance at home and disapproval abroad. This film gives viewers the tools to distinguish the "unofficial" truth from the "official" version of the news. Narrated by Sean Penn

Following the screening join the coalition in honoring Madelyn Hoffman, Director of New Jersey Peace Action, for her service to our communities in the name of peace and justice.

Admission is free.

All are welcome! For information, call: 973-783-0139.

Sponsoring groups include: Montclair Branch of People's Organization for Progress, Undoing Racism and Peace and Justice Committees of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, Black Dialogues, Montclair Campaign for Peace and Justice, Military Families Speak Out, and Million Man Montclair.
